

SCOTTISH ST. ANDREW SOCIETY OF GREATER ST. LOUIS

MARCH, 1987

Dear Member:

A thoroughly enjoyable evening was experienced by those who viewed the film "Voice in the Fingers" at our last meeting. I could not help but contrast the modern video equipment used at Salem Methodist, with the subject itself, the history of the bagpipes. The program was topped off by a delightful demonstration, with erudite comment, by our own Pipe-major, Bill Henry - we are fortunate to have access to such a dedicated piper. All our of thanks goes to Mr. and Mrs. Milton McLeod, who gave us a charming description of life in Prince Edward Island in Canada at the previous meeting. They brought to us a land which in many aspects is very similar to Ayrshire; more than one comment was heard to that effect.

Special Announcement: BATTLEFIELD BAND in concert at the Kirkwood Community Center, on Monday, April 13, 1977. Tickets will be available in mid March from Art Vasterling, Sandy Mount Productions, and Focal Point.

Don't forget the upcoming Ceilidh, April 27th, at the Salem Methodist Church. It is an opportunity for the membership to "show off" its entertainment talents. Those who are not shy should inform Jeanne Peter about any needs for their performance (trapezes, rings of fire, etc!).

On Tuesday, 17th March, at 8 p.m. The Scot Symphonic Band (Pipers and Dancers) will be performing at the Sheldon Concert Hall, 3648 Washington Avenue, St. Louis. They have also a performance scheduled at Ladue Chapel, on March 18th, at 7.30 p.m. They are from the College of Wooster, in Ohio, which has a traditional flavor of things Scottish.

Date not to miss: 23rd March - IRISH EVENING with Helen Gannon and her dancers and musicians. Usual time, 7.30 p.m. at Salem Methodist, Clayton and Lindbergh.

The word for last month, "insnorl", means to "entangle" probably a corruption of the English "ensnare" or "snag". March's word could also be a phrase: JOUKERY - PAWKERY

Sincerely

Tom Forrester
